Sir:

Supplemental to the Information Disclosure Statement filed on May 31, 2006, as a further concise statement of relevance for JP-A-2002-197635, applicants point out that the Japanese Patent Office, in a second Office Action, dated June 20, 2006, in counterpart Japanese application No. 2004-005778, stated that it is known from column [0024] of JP '635 that the undercoat layer may include metals such as Pt and Pd, and also may include such elements as described in claim 1 of the present application.

Applicants enclose herewith a copy of the second Japanese Office Action, as well as a copy of the first Japanese Office Action of January 4, 2006 that cites and discusses the following documents that applicants previously submitted:
